SPOOKY SCIENCE FEST

BLOOD

FEAST

ON THE

LLANO GRANDE

Often misunderstood, creatures that drink blood are only adapting to survive!

Saturday, October 30 6 p.m. – 10 p.m.

Join us for the fifth annual Spooky Science Fest at Estero Llano Grande State Park. Your whole family will enjoy a bat education cave, spooky night hike, live animals, spooky stories, kids' costume contest, crafts, hay rides, food, science experiments, and more!

$5 adults • $2 children 12 and under
